Every Australian Counts

NDIS | Revolutionising disability services

“I support the NDIS. It’s time to make every Australian count.”

We’re campaigning on the ground and online for a National Disability Insurance Scheme. Across Australia via Facebook, Twitter, email, over phones and in person supporters are coming together to tell the Government, ‘Count me in’.

Sign up below and we’ll connect you with thousands of supporters who are holding community events, writing letters to MPs, sharing information about the campaign with their friends, colleagues and family, or simply saying “Count Me In.”

Help us reach our goal of 100,000 supporters
